

I applaud N.J.'s Do not call list law. I had been inundated with solicitors calling and I did not want them to bother me at home. I feel that it is not their right to be able to call anyone at their home to solicit. I should have a right to my privacy. N.J.'s Do not call list law has protected me from these unwanted calls and I wish it to remain in effect. Thank You...